the problem this project attempts to solve is to develop a workable moral education in light of the clash between religious forms of moral education and u s supreme court decisions concerning them the concept of story and storytelling has been suggested as a unifying focus for disparate prescriptions for moral education several recent approaches to moral storytelling have been proposed the approaches of william bennett nel noddings and herbert kohl are among those which have attempted to combine moral education and storytelling within the last decade bennett is identified with other theorists whose primary concern is the moral content of a story noddings is identified as a process theorist whose primary concern is the process of moral storytelling not the content kohl is identified as a reflection theorist whose approach challenges tradition in the hope of creating a more moral society each one of these three approaches attempts to provide a comprehensive program of moral education but they fall short of that goal the purpose of this project then is to construct a storytelling moral education program that improves upon earlier approaches using the three levels of moral thinking posited by r m hare a three level approach to moral storytelling is proposed the intuitive critical and meta ethical levels of moral thinking that hare refers to are used to frame a new three level approach to moral storytelling the three level approach combines content process and reflection into a unified prescription for moral education thus a more comprehensive plan for moral education through storytelling is developed one that respects traditional forms of moral education while remaining within the parameters set by the u s supreme court essay from the year 2020 in the subject literature asia language english abstract this paper deals with four major short stories of ruskin bond where railway station is the setting and bond attempts to build private relations in public atmosphere i have not specifically dealt with space theory but certain concepts like auge s idea of non place tuan s meaning of existence and the relation between man and environment which were necessary while justifying the tendency of the author to transform the railway station into a private place for expressing his character's personal desires the bond of human relationships emphasizes bond's understanding of the human mentality nature thoughts and behaviour bond's stories display human feelings like affection care kind heartedness insecurities sorrow and disgust as his art is often referred to as autobiographical his characters are real and we can find them in our neighbourhood the incomparable way in which he alters the unexciting dull things in our everybody life into something really striking and interesting fascinate not only the common reader but also the literary world travelling and communication with masses is equally important for humanity which makes one socially upgraded and sometimes may give birth to inventive artists like ruskin bond this is a casebook on louise erdrich's first novel love medicine which came out in 1984 to instant national acclaim winning a national book circle critics award and launching a tetralogy which it would take erdrich ten years to complete as a literary genre indian short story next to poetry is the most popular and accepted form of literature for its variety and nuance of indian experience evolving over time it has gained wide currency among people even after its recourse to traditional rules of the craft indian short story amazingly presents itself an original and distinctive form of art developed out of contemporary native literature and western storytelling technique indian short story presents an amalgamation of two different literary traditions which has become unique and distinctive in course of time and long been catering to the taste of people ever since its origin it has already witnessed a plethora of indian writers who have made significant contributions to this genre by encapsulating the essence of indian life and culture they are rabindranath tagore munshi premchand r k narayan mulk raj anand ismat chughtai ruskin bond khushwant singh saadat hasan manto ashapura devi jhumpa lahiri anita desai kiran desai chitra banerjee divakaruni anita nair qurratulain hyder namita gokhale madhulika liddle just to name a few at present indian short story has taken a wider form much more than earlier and almost every writer has started trying her or his hand at this field that it is too difficult for one to sum up the whole in one singular work still this present book is an endeavour to compile the works of major indian short story writers in a short but comprehensive way in order to supply the best possible materials to readers writers academics scholars and students who wish to do further studies in this field there are twenty six chapters in this book which together presents a rich tapestry of this genre hopefully this book will march towards many unexplored realms exciting many curious minds restarting many fruitful dialogues and invigorating many fresh and new ideas among academics scholars and students alike
